

Handwritten musical notation for "American Pie" by Don McLean, arranged by Phil McGarrick. The notation is written on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and fingerings.

Key annotations and markings include:

- Annotations: "DIP THEM DOWN to bottom 'D' OR USE PITCH FORK" with an arrow pointing to a note.
- Annotations: "HAMMER" above a note.
- Annotations: "whole" with an arrow pointing to a note.

The notation is organized into measures, with some measures containing multiple notes and rests, indicating complex rhythmic patterns. The piece is written in a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and 4/4 time.
